WHAT HAS BEEN DONE?

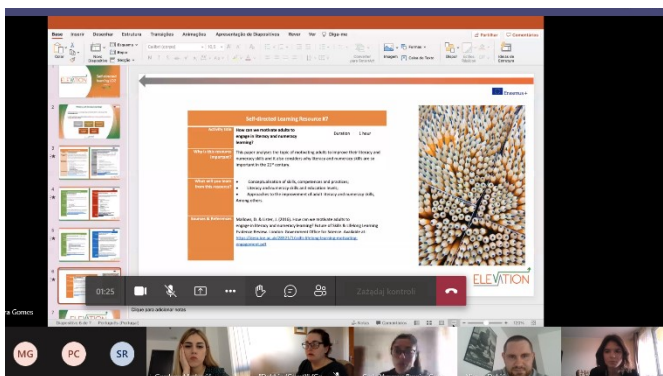

Project partners are delighted to announce that after many months and lots of hard work, the following steps of project development have been successively completed:

- ✓ Development of IO1 mini-learning format resources (Adult Educator Manuals, Learner Handouts, Assessment Questions and videos)
- ✓ Development of IO2 – In-service training programme and self-directed learning handbook
- ✓ Development of IO3 Community Learning Festival Planning Handbook
- ✓ Development of IO4 e-learning portal
- ✓ Delivery of the C1 Virtual Training Event

THE NEW NORMAL

Like every other sector of life, the Elevation project and its development has been hampered by COVID19. However, much like a lot of other people out there, partners have had to adapt. It has been difficult, but partners are well used to creating materials remotely. After all, an Erasmus+ Strategic Partnership is all about working remotely, and across different languages and cultures. Partners have had to cancel a "face to face" meeting in Nicosia and host the meeting online. It was a fruitful meeting where literally everything that needed to be discussed was discussed.

The training was conducted mostly by members of the Croatian partner - Callidus. It was delivered in a very interactive way and participants agreed that the training was very engaging and prepared adult educators to implement the results with the target group.

COMING NEXT...

During the coming months, each partner will host a Community Learning Festival in their local area with the specific task of engaging marginalised target groups in familiar settings. These festivals are planned to take place in May or June. Naturally, partners want the proposed community learning festivals to become annual events in their local community.

LTTA TRAINING

The C1 Virtual Training event was originally supposed to take place in Ireland, but unfortunately due to the ongoing pandemic situation in the world, the event has been moved and will take place face to face but virtually. The training took place from the 23rd to the 26th of March and was carried out on the Microsoft Teams platform.
