FILM MAKING FOR INCLUSION AND DEVELOPMENT

SEPTEMBER 2022

ABOUT THE PROJECT

The Film Making for Inclusion and Development Project is an Erasmus + project that began in November 2021, and ends in September 2023. The aim of the project is to strengthen the employability and personal skill set of young people, with a focus on marginalized youth, through increased digital readiness, resilience and capacity in the area of film making. The project is designed to avoid repeating the mistakes of formal education provision, but instead put a great emphasis on skills, usefulness and relevance on technologies taught, at the same time teaching the empathy and creativity needed to properly reach students in danger of exclusion.
